Privacy Policy

Because Hammerweb Holdings and its business divisions of Affordable Web Design, ePrivate Schools, eMobileMe, Steamboat Hosting and Telluride Websmith (and Mountain Websmith) and its products eTextMe and Free Agent (collectively herein referred to as "Hammerweb Holdings") values the privacy of our clients, we do not share any of your personal information, submitted on any of our web sites, with anyone other than internal company personnel.

Hammerweb Holdings provides "links" to a wide variety of other web sites on the Internet. In addition, many of our clients maintain their own privacy policies that may be viewed on their web sites. We are not responsible for their privacy policies or how those web sites manage information about their users. We strongly recommend you check with the particular system owner or company/association to determine or view their privacy policy.

Please note that by visiting and using a website or system hosted by Hammerweb Holdings, you are accepting the practices described in this Privacy Policy. If we decide to change our Privacy Policy, we will post those changes to the internet so that you are always aware of what information we gather and how we use it. If Hammerweb Holdings' Privacy Policy changes with respect to information you provide to clients of Hammerweb Holdings, this change will be posted on www.Hammerweb.net (and other websites) and conveyed to Hammerweb Holdings' clients.

The Information We Gather

Hammerweb Holdings does not collect any personal information from a visitor to our web site unless that visitor explicitly and intentionally provides it. If you are simply browsing our web site, we do not gather any personal information about you. There are ways in which you may explicitly and intentionally provide us with and consent to our collection of certain personal information:

1. E-mail request for information – We use links throughout our web site to provide you with the opportunity to contact us via e-mail to ask questions, request information and materials, or provide comments or suggests. You may also be offered the opportunity to have one of our representatives contact you personally to provide additional information about our products or services. To do so, we may requests additional personal information from you, such as your name and telephone number, to help us satisfy your request.
2. Purchase of products or services – If you choose to purchase one of our products or services, we will request certain information from you. Depending on the type of product or service that you request, you may be asked to provide different personal information. For certain products and services, we may require your name, address, telephone number, e-mail address, credit card number, bank account information, IP address, and/or identity number. Other products and services may require additional or supplemental information from you in order to purchase.

In addition, information we automatically collect via industry standard web log files includes the URL from which you visited, the page you are visiting, your computer browser information and your IP address. We may also track the effectiveness of various features of our web site through the use of data collection devices known as “cookies.” Cookies contain specific pieces of information on your computer hard drive, and can be set to store information during a visit or for a longer period of time. Our cookies are not tied to personally identifiable information.

How We Use the Information We Gather

First, Hammerweb Holdings responds to any e-mail questions, requests for product or service information, and other inquiries that we receive. We may also retain this correspondence to improve our products, services, and web site, and for other disclosed purposes. Frequently we retain contact information so that we can send clients updates or other important information about our products and services. We also may use the information you submit to contact you to discuss the support, renewal, and purchase of our products and services.

If we are required by law to disclose certain information to local, state, federal, national or international government or law enforcement authorities, we will do so. We will also disclose information to third parties as necessary in order to comply with applicable laws and regulations.

In addition, Hammerweb Holdings may share information in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities or suspected fraud, or enforce or apply Hammerweb Holdings’ agreements.

The Information on the Systems We Create

Hammerweb Holdings develops and provides programs and applications to Hammerweb Holdings’ clients. These systems are based on clients’ requests and requirements. We do not manage the information collected in any system we produce for clients. While certain personal information collected by our clients might reside, temporarily or permanently, on software or hardware that Hammerweb Holdings owns, licenses or can otherwise access, Hammerweb Holdings’ clients remain solely responsible for managing the information contained on the systems. Hammerweb Holdings does not make any assumptions as to what clients will do with the information they collect. If Hammerweb Holdings is ever granted access to data within a client’s system, we do not manipulate, edit or otherwise use, distribute or resell the data or personal information.

Information Security

The systems produced by Hammerweb Holdings are verified as “secure and reliable” by Starfield Technologies, Inc. and/or Comodo CA Ltd. Information is secured both during transmission and online storage. If a particular system developed by Hammerweb Holdings involves integrated payment processing (Credit card, Pay Pal, e-Checks, etc.), the account information is not stored in the database we developed. Rather, the account information is stored by the credit card processor, Pay Pal or banking institution. Please contact the client or company/association with any and all questions related to payment processing or payment refunds. If a particular system developed by Hammerweb Holdings includes the collection of Social Security Numbers, only the last four digits of the Social Security Number are stored in the database, unless otherwise requested or instructed by the client or association.

Children’s Privacy

Consistent with the Federal Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998 (COPPA), we will never knowingly request personally identifiable information from anyone under the age of 13 without requesting parental consent.
